

Sensory Horse Disclaimer form

I acknowledge that activities around horses carry an element of risk, horses and ponies can be reactive to their environment and be unpredictable at times.

Riding lessons and ground work sessions are facilitated to not create any harmful or dangerous situations, I appreciate that the staff involved in the sessions will do everything to ensure safety and I shall not assign any direct liability for any situation or issue that might arise.

I have been made aware of safety around the yard and outdoor environment and the potential risks around horses and ponies and therefore will pay due care and attention to my safety and others with me throughout the sessions and in the unlikely event of an incident occurring, I will not hold persons involved in the sessions and at Sensory Horse liable in any way.
